1.

Woman What are you up to this weekend?

Man I don't know. Let's do something fun.

2.

Woman Do you feel like going clubbing?

Man I'm not really into clubbing.

3.

Woman I wouldn't mind going to a concert.

Man I'll pass. I'm really not in the mood for a concert.

4.

Woman What else looks interesting?

Man Look, this one is a comedy show. Could be good.

5.

Woman Let's go see that new DJ tonight.

Man OK, I'm sold.

6.

Woman What do we do about tickets?

Man We can book them in advance or buy them at the door.

Hae-Jin So Brad. What are you up to this weekend?

Brad I don't know. What do you feel like doing? Do you want to catch a band? Perhaps the Red Beats concert?

Hae-Jin Oh, no. I'm not really into hip-hop ... perhaps we can just hang out ...

Brad Oh, come on, Hae-Jin! It's Saturday night. Let's do something fun. Do you want to go dancing? We could go to a club.

3.048

Brad We're in luck. The Arts Festival is on this weekend.

- Hae-Jin The Arts Festival? Oh, yeah ... lots of concerts and plays ... just what I feel like.
- Brad Oh, come on. I know you're not really into plays, but give them a chance. We went to that Shakespeare play last year, remember? It was great!
- Hae-Jin Sorry. I'm not really in the mood for a play.
- Brad Well, there are movies too. Look. Here's the schedule. Uh, what do you feel like seeing?
- Hae-Jin I don't know. What looks good?
- Brad A couple of movies look interesting. Mm ... what about this one: Motorcycles in the Mud. It's about two friends who take a motorcycle trip across India during the rainy season.
- Hae-Jin Sounds like a guy film. I'll pass. What else looks interesting? Are there any comedy acts? I wouldn't mind seeing a comedy show. Or look, this one here is a magic show. A magic show could be good.
- Brad No one's into stupid magic shows.
- Hae-Jin Oh ... actually it's already sold out. Hey, feel like going clubbing? Look at this one. There's a famous DJ playing really cool music at a club on Smith Street.
- Brad OK, I'm sold. When does it start?
- Hae-Jin Mm ... doors open at nine p.m.
- Brad What do we do about tickets?
- Hae-Jin Um, let's see. We'll just go and buy them at the door.

3.049

1.

- Hae-Jin Did you get the tickets?
- Brad I did, but they were really expensive. He's such a famous DJ and it's pretty small club. There weren't many tickets left.
- Hae-Jin Yeah, I was afraid of that, but I really love his music.

3.050

2.

- Man Good evening. How can I help you?
- Woman Yes, we'd like two tickets for the seven thirty show.
- Man That'll be seventeen dollars.
- Woman OK. Here you are.
- Man And here are your tickets. Go right in, it's the third door to your left, just past the popcorn and drinks.
- Woman Thanks.

3.051

3.

- Man 1 Excuse me, we're looking for our friends ...

Woman Oh, yeah, they're in room fifteen.

Man 2 Thanks a lot. I think I can hear Connie singing.

Man 1 She sounds terrible!

Man 2 Shh! I know, but she really loves it. And she thinks she's really good.

3.052

4.

Woman Hurry up, Glen. I can hear them. It's already started.

Man Don't worry ... it's just the warm-up act.

Woman OK, but let's run. The stadium is so big, and I don't want to miss the first song.

3.053

5.

Man Good evening. Do you have reservations?

Woman Yes, we do. The last name is Johnson. Uh ... we asked for a table for four but now we have four extra people. Is that OK?

Man Four more? I'm sure it's no problem, but we may need to put two of you at the bar and two at the table outside.

Woman What!?

Man Just kidding.

3.054

6.

Man 1 OK, did you bring a blanket? It might be cold.

Man 2 Yeah, I've got a blanket and a small umbrella in my bag. It might rain.

Man 1 Great, but if our team is losing, I'm leaving.

Man 2 What? Are you serious?

3.055

Example: Did you get tickets?

1. We're in luck.

2. Here's the schedule.

3. What do you feel like seeing?

4. I don't know.

5. What about this one?

6. Are there any comedy acts?

The annual Asia Arts Festival is a competition in which participants showcase their skills in all forms of performing arts, such as drama, singing and dancing. The Festival attracts people from all over

Asia, and in the last two years there have been contestants from China, Hong Kong, the Philippines, Indonesia, Malaysia, Vietnam and Singapore. Along with a range of ethnicities, the Festival also boasts a range of ages, with contestants last year ranging in age from 6 to 80.

Now in its third year, the Asia Arts Festival was started by Francis Liew, an accomplished Singaporean musician who has conducted choirs since the age of 18. Liew has transformed many choirs into award winners known both locally and internationally. The Asia Arts Festival is the culmination of his 33-year musical career and his desire to bring various performing arts together.

The 3rd Asia Arts Festival will be held in the beautiful city of Singapore, a cultural melting pot that has a vibrant art scene, interesting sights and delicious food. The Asia Arts Festival accepts solo, small or large groups for performances. Contestants can apply either by mail or online. For more information, go to <http://www.asiaartsfestival.com/>.
